By submitting an application the applicant shall be deemed to agree to all of the following conditions:

- 1) To purchase electric energy from the Cooperative at a service connection as designated in the membership application;
 - 2) To comply with and be bound by the Cooperative's Articles of Consolidation and any acts of Consolidation; the Cooperative's bylaws or amendments thereto; all membership terms adopted by the Board, and such rules, regulations and policies as may be adopted by the Board of Directors from time to time;

If an application is submitted by telephone any fees will be added to the applicant's first monthly bill as a separate and specific amount and shall be paid in full.
- b) The Cooperative reserves the right to require all applications to be submitted in writing and to be accompanied by all required fees. Membership under an application submitted over the telephone shall be conditional until such time as the Cooperative shall receive payment of all required fees in full, and upon the Cooperative confirming the applicant's service location and qualifications for membership.

All members shall pay all amounts owed to the Cooperative when they become due and payable.

A meeting will be scheduled with the Board of Directors within 30 days of receiving the applicant's written notice of appeal.

Upon filing a written appeal with the board, the applicant may be required by the Board of Directors to pay a deposit to cover electric usage during the appeal process.

- b) Signs any deed, mortgage, deed of trust, note, bond, contract or other instrument authorized by the Board of Directors to be executed, except in cases in which the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board of Directors or by these Bylaws to some other officer or agent of the Cooperative, or shall be required to be otherwise signed or executed; and in general shall perform all duties incident to the office of Chairman and other duties as prescribed by the Board.

Section 6 Vice-Chairman

In the absence of the Chairman, or in the event of his inability or refusal to act, the Vice-Chairman shall perform the duties of the Chairman, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Chairman and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors.

- a) Cause the creation of minutes of meetings of the members and the Board of Directors and assure the safekeeping thereof;
- b) Cause all notices to be duly given in accordance with these Bylaws or as required by law;

- c) Be custodian of the corporate records and of the corporate seal that is affixed to all documents, the execution of which on behalf of the Cooperative under its seal is duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of these bylaws;
- d) In general perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and other duties as prescribed by the Board.

Section 8 Treasurer

The treasurer shall in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors.

Section 9 President & Chief Executive Officer

The Board of Directors shall employ a President & CEO who may be, but shall not be required to be a member of the Cooperative. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Cooperative and be responsible for managing the cooperative on a day-to-day basis, perform duties and exercise authority as the Board of Directors dictates.

Section 10 Bonds of Officers

The Board of Directors shall require all officers of the Cooperative charged with responsibility for the custody of any of its funds or property, to give bond in such sum and with such surety as the Board of Directors shall determine.

The Board of Directors in its discretion may also require any other officer, agent or employee of the Cooperative to give bond in such amount and with such surety as it shall determine.

Section 11 Indemnification and Insurance for officers, directors and employees

The Cooperative shall indemnify and hold harmless any officer or director, and may hold harmless any employee, made or threatened to be made, a party to any action, suit or proceeding arising out of the performance by such person of his or her responsibilities as an officer, director, or employee of the Cooperative, or of any other cooperative, partnership, or enterprise for which he or she served at the request of the Cooperative, against all expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, or in connection with any appeal thereof, except in relation to matters as to which it shall finally be determined that such person has acted in bad faith in the performance of his or her duties to the Cooperative.

The term "expense" as used herein shall include, but shall not be limited to attorney fees, cost of litigation or preparation for litigation, amount of judgments or penalties and amounts paid in settlement of an action, suit or proceeding made or threatened against a director, officer or employee of the Cooperative.

In determining whether bad faith occurred, the issue shall be whether the person involved acted honestly and with the intent to benefit the Cooperative. Consideration may be given to whether the person took or omitted to take action in reliance on advice of legal counsel for the Cooperative or upon statements made or information furnished by employees or agents of the Cooperative which that person had reasonable grounds to believe.

If there is a final adjudication in the action, suit or proceeding as to any bad faith of any officer, director or employee of the Cooperative, then such adjudication shall be binding for purposes of this section. Any such officer or director who has prevailed in such adjudication on the merits or otherwise shall be entitled to indemnification as a matter of right. If, however, the matter should be settled prior to or without such a final adjudication as to an officer or director, or in any event as to an employee, then the question of whether such person involved acted in bad faith may be determined by a majority vote of at least a quorum of the directors who are unaffected by self-interest in connection with the matter at issue. If a quorum of directors unaffected by self-interest does not exist, indemnification may be made by the Cooperative's treasurer upon receipt of a written opinion from the Cooperative's legal counsel that the person is entitled to indemnification as set forth herein.

Should a final adjudication determine that an officer, employee, or director acted in bad faith, then the officer, employee, or director shall be immediately disqualified to serve in their position as an officer, director or employee.

If several claims, actions, issues or matters are involved, indemnification may be made for some matters even though the person involved is not so entitled as to other matters.

The Cooperative may advance expenses to or may at its expense undertake the defense of any person, pursuant to this sections, and upon receipt of an undertaking for repayment by or on behalf of the person, if it should ultimately be determined that that person is not entitled to indemnification hereunder.

The provisions of this section shall be applicable to claims, actions, suits or proceedings made or commenced after the adoption hereof, whether arising from acts of omissions to act during, before or after the date of adoption.

These rights of indemnification shall be in addition to any rights to which any person concerned may otherwise be entitled by contract as a matter of law, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs or personal representatives of such person.

The Cooperative may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Cooperative, or is or was serving at the request of the Cooperative as a director, officer, employee or agent of another cooperative, partnership or enterprise controlled by the Cooperative, against any liability asserted against or expense reasonably incurred by such a person arising out of his or her Cooperative, whether or not the Cooperative would be required to indemnify such person against such liability or expense under the provisions of this section or otherwise.

All such amounts in excess of operating costs and expenses, at the moment of receipt by the Cooperative, are received with the understanding that they are furnished by the patrons as capital.

The Cooperative is obligated to pay by credits to a capital account for each patron, all such amounts in excess of operating costs and expenses, at the moment of receipt by the Cooperative, are received with the understanding that they are furnished by the patrons as capital. The books and records of the Cooperative shall be set up and kept in such a manner that at the end of each fiscal year, the amount of capital, if any, so furnished by each patron, is clearly reflected and credited in an appropriate record to the capital account of each patron. Notification of the amount of capital so credited to the account of each patron may be given at such times and in such manner as the Board of Directors may provide from time to time. All such amounts credited to the capital account of any patron shall have the same status as though they had been paid to the patron in cash, in pursuance of the legal obligation to do so, and the patron had then furnished the Cooperative corresponding amounts for capital.

a) used to offset any losses incurred during the current or any prior fiscal year; and (b) to the extent not needed for that purpose, allocated to its patrons on a patronage basis and any amount so allocated shall be included as a part of the capital credited to the accounts of patrons, as herein provided.
